

Directions to The Dive Bus / Ocean Apartments, Marie Pampoen, from Curacao International Airport

Drive time approx 25 minutes depending on traffic.

1. Turn left out of the main airport exit, in the direction of Willemstad
2. Continue on the same road until you reach a large roundabout with a gas station at the 11 o'clock position (Palu Blancu), controlled by traffic lights.
3. Go straight across the roundabout and onto 'the Ring' – a 2 lane highway which, as the name implies, goes around in a large circle.
4. Stay on the Ring, crossing over the amazing Juliana Bridge and continue towards Salina and Caracasbaai.
5. At the 5th light after the bridge, take the right by Lard Alley': KFC and MacDonalds. You're now in Salina.
6. Take the right hand lane on the roundabout but TAKE CARE: once you are on the roundabout, you do NOT have priority. Stay in the right hand lane and take the 11 o'clock exit, signposted Caracasbaai (past Atrium Fitness and Spa).
7. Stay in the right hand lane and take the right turning at the traffic light, onto Dr Malweg, signposted to Marie Pampoen and the Curacao Seaquarium.
8. Once you see the ocean in front of you, you will go over a speed bump, with Sun Lee Chinese restaurant to your right. Take the turning on the left right by Sun Lee, past a blue building with Polar painted all over it, on your left.
9. This is a one-way residential street with more speed bumps.
10. Continue on the same road as it curves to the right and becomes (Goo-too-weg)
11. Ahead on the left, at the end of the street, you will see a building with aqua-blue painted walls, dive flags flying and a set of iron gates into the parking lot; Pierbaai beach and Seaside Terrance and Surf & Turf restaurant are right across the road, That's us - you made it!

If all else fails, follow the signs for the Curacao Seaquarium or ask directions to Breezes. We're right there.
